New Canada site expands GXO's North America footprint; Deepens global partnership with Pandora

GREENWICH, Conn., April 02, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- GXO Logistics, Inc. (NYSE: GXO), the world's largest pure -play contract logistics provider, announced today that it has opened a new distribution center in Mississauga, Ontario with Pandora, the world's largest jewelry brand. The facility underscores the strength of GXO and Pandora's long -standing partnership, which now spans distribution centers across the U.S., UK and Continental Europe.

"We are pleased to expand our partnership with Pandora into the Canadian market, further supporting the brand's accelerating omnichannel growth through localized, in-country fulfillment," said Michael Jacobs, President, Americas and Asia Pacific, GXO. "By establishing operations closer to the end customer and leveraging advanced technology solutions, we are reducing cross-border complexity while enabling a faster, more seamless and scalable customer experience."

Strategically located in Ontario, the facility will strengthen Pandora's ecommerce fulfillment footprint and improve overall network efficiency. The site features advanced technology solutions, including lighted picking systems for high-precision order assembly and video capture at pack-out for high-value shipments, enhancing accuracy, throughput and visibility. Pandora will also leverage GXO's regional transportation network.

"GXO is a trusted strategic partner, and their technology and operational expertise play a key role in strengthening our North America supply chain," said Carsten Olsen, VP of Global Omni Operations at Pandora. "This new site lets us serve our Canadian customers faster and more reliably while building a more agile and resilient supply chain network for the future."

The new distribution center reflects GXO's continued investment in scalable, tech -enabled logistics solutions and expands the company's operational network in North America.
