

GXO Strengthens Commercial Leadership in Aerospace & Defense to Accelerate Growth

September 28, 2026

GREENWICH, Conn., Sept. 28, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- GXO Logistics, Inc. (NYSE: GXO), the world's largest pure-play contract logistics provider, today announced the appointment of Dan Davis as President of Aerospace & Defense, a newly created enterprise role focused on accelerating the Company's growth and strengthening its position in one of its most strategic growth verticals. Davis joins GXO today, reporting to CEO Patrick Kelleher.

Aerospace & Defense represents one of the most significant growth opportunities for GXO, building on the company's deep operational expertise and track record of serving complex, highly regulated industries around the world. In this role, Davis will lead GXO's global Aerospace & Defense growth strategy to drive market development, customer acquisition, strategic partnerships and pipeline growth across the business.

"At GXO, we continue to invest in the leadership, capabilities and strategic focus needed to accelerate growth in the sectors where we see the greatest opportunity," said GXO CEO Patrick Kelleher. "Aerospace & Defense is an increasingly important sector that requires a differentiated go-to-market engine. Dan brings a rare combination of military experience, industry expertise and commercial leadership that will help us deepen customer relationships, expand our capabilities and strengthen GXO's position as a trusted partner for mission-critical supply chains."

Davis joins GXO from FSI Defense, a FlightSafety International and Berkshire Hathaway company, where he served as President. In that role, he more than doubled the company's growth pipeline while improving revenue, profitability and customer satisfaction. Previously, Davis spent fifteen years with Lockheed Martin working across multiple business areas in Program Management and Capture Management roles. A graduate of the United States Military Academy at West Point, he also served as a Field Artillery Officer in the U.S. Army.

Earlier this year, GXO took key strategic actions to strengthen its position in the defense sector. The company established a Defense Advisory Board, bringing together distinguished leaders with deep military expertise to provide strategic counsel and actionable insights on growth opportunities. GXO also joined Amentum, Accenture and A.P. Moller-Maersk as a founding member of Torus Defence Supply Chain, an alliance designed to help strengthen the future of the UK defense sector.
