Fortune magazine places global pure-play logistics leader on its annual list of 500 largest U.S. companies by revenue in its first year as standalone company

GREENWICH, Conn., May 23, 2022 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- GXO Logistics, Inc. (NYSE: GXO), the world's largest pure-play contract logistics provider, announced today that it has been added to the Fortune 500 list, which is assembled annually by Fortune magazine and includes the largest U.S. companies by revenue.

"We are very pleased to be recognized on the Fortune 500 in our first year as a standalone company," said GXO Chief Executive Officer Malcolm Wilson. "As supply chains become increasingly complex and require greater scale and innovation, our role as a trusted, long-term partner to global businesses is more critical than ever. GXO's inclusion on the prestigious Fortune 500 list is a recognition of how our team members are delivering outstanding financial performance and redefining the value of contract logistics for our customers."

GXO's revenue of $7.9 billion for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2021, ranks the company No. 1 among pure-play contract logistics companies in the U.S. based on revenue for their latest fiscal year. Among the notable achievements in its first year as a standalone company, GXO published its inaugural ESG report highlighting its outstanding environmental, social and governance (ESG) performance and goals and received an "AA" rating from MSCI, placing GXO 1st among its logistics-industry peers for its bold environmental targets.

GXO customers include over 30% of the Fortune 100 companies, and the company's robust sales pipeline — which stood at $2.5 billion as of March 31, 2022 — provides excellent opportunities for future growth.
